

2024
YOUNG GUNS
WORKSHOP

Hi boss!

I am writing to request your approval to attend the Smithink Young Guns Workshop 2024, scheduled for 21-22 October on the Gold Coast. This event brings together young, up-and-coming leaders in the accounting industry for a dynamic experience focused on enhancing leadership skills and shaping the future of our profession.

After researching the program, I believe my attendance would not only enhance my skills but also provide significant benefits to our firm. Below, I have outlined a few reasons why attending this workshop would be valuable:

Business Advisory Services	Discover how to integrate business advisory services into your firm's offerings to stay ahead of the competition.
People Management	Learn strategies for nurturing talent and fostering a culture of success within your firm.
Emerging Technologies	Stay abreast of the latest technological advancements and leverage them to drive efficiency and innovation.
Manage Challenges	Learn tried and true strategies to deal with tough stuff in helpful ways.
Innovation Focus	Collaborate with peers to envision and design the accounting firm of tomorrow.
Client Engagement	Learn how to ask the right questions to uncover valuable insights and enhance client satisfaction.
Networking Opportunities	Connect with like-minded professionals and establish valuable relationships for long-term growth.

You can review the full program and details here: www.youngguns.smithink.com

And bonus...I'll earn 14 CPD points by attending!

Below is an overview of the costs for me to attend:

I hope you agree that this will be a great opportunity for me to learn new ideas and methods from industry experts, ultimately benefiting our firm. I look forward to sharing and implementing the knowledge and wisdom I will gain upon my return to the office.

I would appreciate your timely approval to attend, as registrations fill up quickly. If you have any questions about this opportunity, please don't hesitate to let me know.

Thank you for considering my request to further my skill set and contribute to the overall success of our firm.

Best regards,
